

Home Organization and Decluttering Services

It's not uncommon for people to feel overwhelmed by clutter and disorganization in their own homes. It's a condition that can creep up on us, sometimes leaving us not sure where to even begin. If you've been wanting to declutter, but just can't seem to do it, I'm here to give you that boost.

I will come to your home and help you restore the sense of order and peace you're looking for in your space. With compassionate guidance, you can rid yourself of unwanted and unneeded items and reclaim a comfortable environment that brings you joy.

Included in my services:

- guided analysis of your ultimate organization goal(s)
- joining you to go through any and all desired areas of your home
- helping clean and organize what you keep
- encouraging guidance
- helpful readings
- useful strategies to remember going forward.

A recent client, when we had finished just her living space, wrote me later that day and said, "I just sat down and was comfortable. I've never been comfortable in that space." This was after two years of living in the house! That's my goal: for you to find comfort and peace in your living space.

Please contact me to work out a schedule that works for you. I serve areas within a 15-mile radius of Pasadena, Ca.
